February Nassau Intergroup Chair Report

I hope everyone is pleased with the resumption of the sales of literature at Nassau Intergroup! It was a long and tedious process (and expensive too) to get us back on track for this vital service. Kudos to the members of our finance committee led by Jimmy M., our Intergroup Treasurer.

We are here to serve the groups by making all literature available at reasonable prices. For the most part we are selling literature all during the week and all-day Saturdays & Sundays.

Please call the office ahead of time to make sure there is a volunteer in the office to make the sale! Call (516) 292-3045 If you are placing a large order, (use your discretion); leave a message at the office for our Literature Chair, Bill C., or you can email at Literature@nassauny-aa.org

If you would like to be trained for the literature sales, we will train interested individuals mostly on weekends. Please call ahead for an appointment.

Next on the list for the month of February is the SENY Assembly to be held at Nassau Community College on February 9th. This is important for GSRs and DCMs to go to, because there are issues to be discussed and voted on; but I think that ANY AA who may be thinking of doing Service outside of the home group will find this a memorable experience. You will get a glimpse of how decisions are made in AA and how our "leaderless society" gets stuff done!

Lastly, I hope everyone will attend the 52nd SENY Convention at the Westchester Marriott on March 27-29th 2020. The theme of this year's convention will be "A Clear Vision For You." As with the SENY Assembly in Nassau, this event is open to ALL AAs, and should NOT be missed.

Share-A-Day is going to be on one of the last Saturdays in April and we do not have a specific date yet. You will know as soon as it is decided on! This is another event you will not want to miss. By the way, All AA Literature and AA Grapevines & La Vinas & are sold at these events.

We are looking for a person to chair the Nassau Intergroup Picnic at Eisenhower Park this year; let me know if you are interested at the February Intergroup Reps meeting. The Nassau Intergroup Picnic at Eisenhower Park will be Sunday, July 19, Parking lot 6A in the Cedars park site from 8AM-4 pm.

Finally, we are looking for someone to chair our Nassau County Big Meeting this year. Don't worry if you've never done this before; you will have lots of people to help you!

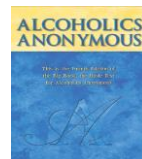

Before the end of May, I will nominate two of our Steering Committee members and get two reps to be on the "Election Nominations Committee" to make all the two-year officer's nominations for the next two years: 2021-2022.

Thank you for all the volunteering you do! There is room for EVERYONE to enrich their Recovery in AA through Service. I wish you all the best -

Sincerely,
Kevin McH
Nassau Intergroup Chair

Literature

Literature sales returned to Intergroup last month and are now available both before and after the monthly Reps meetings, and again daily, 9am-5pm. We pride ourselves on having on hand almost everything AA World Services and AA Grapevine offer and in good quantities, and a "Literature and Other Items Catalogue" is available in the office for review. (Out of stock for a while, Intergroup's popular "Newcomer Packet" is again available.) As in the past, phone ahead to assure the office is open before coming in as we don't always have volunteers on hand, particularly if the weather is unsettled.

Remember that office volunteers will not be able to make change, and that sales are in cash, check or money order only. (No credit or debit cards at this time although we will be discussing the possibility of adding that service in future.) For Special Orders, those which exceed the items and quantities usually available for sale in the front office (such as physically large items like the "Steps" shades or "Preamble" placards, or unusually large quantities of any item), you need to contact the Literature Chair to arrange the purchase. (Contact Literature if you're not sure if you need to arrange a Special Order.) Fulfillment for Special Orders can usually be within a very few days unless items need to be ordered in. Some orders may need to be pre-paid.

We are still on our learning curve with the Point of Sale literature sales system, so please bear with us while we continue to become more familiar, comfortable and effective with it.

In other matters, watch this column for word on the agenda touching literature as we move toward the 70th General Service Conference in April so your group can have its say. That agenda should be available very soon.

NIGHTBOOK COVERAGE NEEDED

Now that Winter is here, and people are more likely to stay indoors, maybe this would be a great time to consider signing up your group for one week of service answering the nightbook calls. I was always told that in order to keep it (sobriety) you got to give it away! How about helping others by carrying the message? Sometimes it's nice to hear a friendly voice on the other end of the phone that understands what they are going through.

All you need is 6 months of continuous sobriety, and a telephone. If you would like assistance, we have book bags available filled with information for your use when answering the phones. I am always available to answer any questions you may have.

Leave me an email message at Nightbook@nassauny-aa.org or call 516-292-3045 and leave your contact information. Another way to reach me would be to attend the Intergroup Rep meeting the first Thursday of each month.

Let's help another alcoholic in need. This type of service always leaves me with a feeling of gratitude. Can I count on you to help? I would like to thank the following groups who helped answer the phones last month:

- Serenity by the Sea P.M.
- Extravagant Promises
- Serenity by the Sea A.M.

Yours in service,
Karen, Nightbook Chair

Corrections

Greetings to all!

My Corrections Service continues to be the most rewarding commitment I have had the privilege of performing in the last 4 years.

Bringing an AA meeting to the jail each week protects my sobriety and enhances my humility.

If you have been sober for the most recent 12 months, have no arrests in the most recent 12 months and are willing to take a weekly commitment for the same day for 6 months, you are qualified.

There are five afternoon spots at 1 pm and 2pm are open and two 630 pm evening slots are open, all are in the men's building.

Contact me in the evening or over the weekend to discuss this wonderful and rewarding service opportunity!

Your Intergroup rep has my mobile number.

Public Information/Communication Professional Community

*This just in from the SUNY college in Old Westbury, thought you all might like to look at what one of our committees is up to. Keep up the great work, Augie & Mark!

During the fall 2019 semester we have grown close with our guests from AA and we consider them a part of our extended family here at SUNY Old Westbury. Their contributions impacted our program in a productive, insightful, and diverse way.

We enjoy our alliance with Alcoholics Anonymous, and our students share that same belief. Every time someone from AA spoke in our Monday "Drums not Drugs" group, you could tell their efforts were appreciated and absorbed by the students. Our students always actively listened and participated during and after the presenter's presentation, it's safe to say that they were engaged and focused on what was being said. The students always asked questions, which would indicate that the speaker raised their awareness of the harmful effects of alcohol.

During the fall semester we had 4 "Drums not Drugs" groups that featured a speaker who was affiliated with Alcoholics Anonymous, we are not going to mention their names in order to protect their privacy. Their contributions to our group are greatly appreciated, and we are thankful for their willingness to provide us with a quality service.

We also had 2 "Living Clean and Sober" radio shows that featured speakers from AA. The information that was shared we would consider to be very valuable, and the speakers were very interactive during the whole process.

The impact Alcoholics Anonymous has had on campus population, and our ability to use them as a tool to educate our students means a lot to us. We are appreciative of the collaboration, and are looking forward to spreading the knowledge the AA members have to our students in the future during Spring 2020 semester.

Thank you so much for your participation,

Best Regards

Step II

By: GERALYN G. Primary Purpose Group Lynbrook

Upon walking into my first AA meeting April 25, 2014 with that feeling in the pit of my stomach (we are all too familiar with), of course my eyes rested on the strategically placed shades. Not an easy thing to miss. Step 1, ok you got me, I'm here. Then the all-powerful Step 2, the Cornerstone, the Hope, the Solution to the problem that was Step 1.

Of course, no one is clear enough to see that yet. What do we see? 2 other problems. Came to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

Problem 1 There is no Power greater than myself Problem 2, I'm not crazy.

What we don't realize is that the insanity referred to in step 2 is the old "threadbare"

Idea that every alcoholic has that someday, someday, somehow, we will be able to drink like normal people. That somehow, we will be able to control our drinking. This time it WILL be different. And therefore, we get drunk on a lie and we get sober on the truth. Along comes Step 2 with its simple beautiful wisdom, it offers hope, it's solution. Like many other alcoholics my experience with this step was: that of course I was my own higher power and I didn't do a very good job. Managing my own life was not my strongest point and because I couldn't manage my own life, I decided I was going to manage everyone else's as well. And normally as alcoholics if we can't use ourselves as higher power, we normally choose other things that we deem just as worthy like money, prestige, jobs, toxic relationships, codependency's or King Alcohol. Everything except the obvious. God was Not an option for me at first because I was still trying to resolve the way I was living my life, And my idea of the way I should be living my life with a God idea, the two of them did not mix.

Until I could resolve those two forces within myself, I needed to use the rooms of Alcoholics Anonymous as my higher power: anything was better than me. I also found it ironic that the chapter in a big book step 2 was introduced is in we agnostics and we agnostics speaks more about faith than any other chapter in the book.

Because, all we really need it was a willingness. But what really cinched it for me was page 52 with its bedevilmments and dark promises. I had all of these, wonderful way to live. "we think not" because I had been the manager of my own life for so long.

But again, that measure of hope, that mustard seed was right there and all I needed was the willingness to believe in a power greater than myself.

So, what did I find in my step 2 experience? I found the God of my childhood again only different, only better, through the program and the fellowship.

Tradition II

This is like Step 2 in the idea of finding that Power Greater than Ourselves.

The only difference being in the steps we do it on an individual level and in the traditions we do it on a group level.

And who better to express the group conscience than a loving God as the group understands him. Not as the individual understands him.

Our primary purpose is to pass that message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

If we couldn't manage our own lives and we had to find that power greater than ourselves that could restore us to sanity what would make us think that we didn't need to do that on the collective level?

What would make us think that a bunch of undisciplined alcoholics without guidance from a loving God would be able to properly "manage" a group composed of alcoholics.

So, what does having a loving God expressing himself in our group conscience do for us? God speaks to us through the group.

First off, we are guided that we should be a group of AAs not just a meeting.

We need to be connected to AA, which means we should be registered with the General Service Office, we should have a GSR and an Intergroup rep. This way our members know exactly what's happening at World services and at AA as a fellowship. We need to make sure that it's the voice of God that we hear at our business meetings and not the voice of the pride and ego of our members.

We don't need a king and queen of AA.

This is especially true when it comes to voting At AA business meetings. We must make sure that we're voting in a fair and honest way that we are not listening or being swayed by votes of friends.

This is especially true when it comes to voting At AA business meetings. We must make sure that we're voting in a fair and honest way that we are not listening or being swayed by votes of friends. This can be especially true of the newcomer who may be in awe of someone. And, especially Members who belong to more than one group and do service in more than one group should keep in mind they really can only vote at their home group. This is where the voice of God comes in. Because we all know that there are no police waiting to arrest you or kick you out of AA, but we do know that this is between you and god as you understand him. We of AA have been blessed with these traditions. We should always do our best to try to stay close to them, the closer we are to the principles of the steps and the traditions the further away from the bottle we are.

Feel free to contact me with your favorite slogan. Help another alcoholic with your favorite slogan that helped you stay sober!
"Series on Slogans"

I was ordered to go to AA in 1993 after a drunken driving charge. Apparently, the state thought I had a drinking problem. Some nerve they had, assuming someone has a problem just because they got caught once drinking and driving. Every construction guy I knew had a built-in bar in his utility truck box, right? I didn't see what the problem was.

I strolled into my first meeting 10 minutes late, and when the chairperson wouldn't sign my court paper unless I stayed for the rest of the meeting, I became infuriated. The nerve! Who do these people think they are anyway? So there I sat, obstinate and angry at the world, as recovery words floated by closed ears. To pass time, I looked up at the walls and saw these corny little frames that said stupid, trite things like "One Day at a Time", "let Go and Let God" and "Live and Let Live". I remember thinking, How did I end up here? But I had no answer to that question, because I was still a budding sick alcoholic.

When I finally arrived for good in 2006, those same slogans were still on the wall. And they are still too corny for me, but this time alcohol the bully had twisted my arm behind my back, and I had said "Uncle". I was thoroughly beaten. I was convinced now to let some of those corny words enter my head, if for no other reason than to push out the junk blocking my rational thinking, which at this point was diminishing rapidly.

Today, those slogans have great meaning to me; they're the cornerstone of my program. I live them, I teach them to the men I sponsor. I have many favorite sayings that I have heard over the years, most of which you won't see on the meeting walls. I love that the AA program is one of plagiarism.

When you hear something wise, later you share it at another meeting. My personal favorite is "Faith can move Mountains but bring a shovel." Its message is, "Faith without Works is Dead" In other words, we need to do the work; God helps those who help themselves.

To me, our slogans teach the new guy every bit as much as our literature does. They were made up by our old timers and have been passed down since the program began. They're an interpretation of our big book—in simple terms—in our own AA language. They've helped me go beyond the "black and white" of the worse themselves, as these frames on the walls literally become pictures in my mind. So, go ahead and plagiarize. Let's share the news to lose the booze!
